द्वादश तितुना ११९९

Only feasting is not our sole objective.

Our bigger dream is to bring a renaissance of Newah language, script and art in the UK.

When I first entered Guthi eight years ago, I knew no one. Even then, you all embraced me as mothers and fathers, sisters and brothers, or simply as friends. After being a member and learning our language- Nepalbhasha, celebrating various festivals to learn our culture and traditions, enjoying picnics and sports events, showing Newah movies and art exhibitions, organising academic seminars and even the world Newah convention, I have no clue when those eight years passed.

There must be very less members with whom I may not have ever spoken to. While inviting you all to various Guthi events, you shared your happiness and grief with me, which used to make me forget that I have been living away from my own family and my country. I cannot value more the experience I had whilst exchanging thoughts with all of you, listening to your personal stories of struggles and dreams throughout those years. To be honest, I have never received this much love and friendliness anywhere else in London and I find myself very lucky for this.

Since then, there has been a lot of changes in Guthi and my own circumstances. However, what has remained unchanged in me is the desire to do new things with which I had come to Guthi. That I have not yet been able to bring the kind of change I always wanted to see in Guthi, has stayed with me as a deep wound. In order to realise that incomplete dream, I am having to come back once again in the executive committee.

In the last eight years, all those festivals that we celebrated and the projects that were directly relevant to our cultural heritage, was not for a single person to accomplish. They were all our achievements as a wider community. However, even after all the successes, at the stage which UK's first Newah organisation 'Pasa Puchah Guthi UK, London' is now, we increasingly feel the urgency to address quite an important issue. In all our attempts to preserve the Newah culture, we are searching for a common ground to embrace all of those who do not speak our language or do not know about our culture, - a stage where I myself was some eight years ago. To fulfil that very aim, we are continuously introducing new ideas and projects from our side.

Having seen the need for a youth leadership in Guthi, I decided to take up the challenge for this term's presidency. Since I have already been involved in the Guthi for two years as a joint secretary and another two years as a general secretary, I am no new face for almost all of you. Together, we have seen all types of successes and failures, and hence I find myself least influenced by both. As I have been analysing the problems with Guthi by being both in and out of the executive committee, I have my plans to bring most of the solutions that are needed. To fulfil which, we as a team expect your continuous support.

Only feasting is not our sole objective. Our bigger dream is to bring a renaissance of Newah language, script and art in the UK. In the name of culture of Nepal, Newah people have historically contributed what has no parallel in rest of the world. Whether we are worthy of such a legacy is something for us to prove.

Re: WNO Greetings

Jwojalapa, Newah friends and Pasa Pucha Guthi UK community.

It is my great pleasure to share hearty congratulations and warm greetings on behalf of the World Newah Organization on the auspicious occasion of Pasa Pucha Guthi's Annual Mha Puja and Nepal Sambat 1139 Celebration. We are delighted that PPGUK is publishing its Annual Magazine "Guthi" in comic version based on the Shankhadhar Sakhwa's movie. The WNO Executive Committee joins me in wishing you continued success and a meaningful and memorable Annual Mha Puja and Nepal Sambat 1139 Celebration.

WNO commend PPG UK for the launch of many cultural activities organized for the Newah-Nepalese community in the greater London metropolitan area over last 17 years. Your activities significantly contribute to promoting Newah culture. Celebrating popular Newah festivals like Yenya Punhi, Mha Puja, Nepal Sambat and offering special Newah activities not only support family and community connection to our culture but also help bring greater awareness to the rich heritage of the Newahs and the importance of our history and rituals. Newah people around the globe should feel proud of PPG UK for its ongoing efforts to promote and preserve Newah cultural heritage, feasts and festivals, language, literature, music, and attire.

It is critical that Newah people around the globe unite and come together to build awareness of Newah culture and promote and preserve our Newah identity, actively striving to achieve equal rights for our language and culture. WNO is confident that PPGUK will continue to contribute to this cause and sponsor excellent activities and events designed to spotlight and strengthen Newah culture and Nepal bhasa. WNO looks forward to working with the PPG UK team to achieve our common goals.

Happy New Year 1139, the Era of Nepal. Subhaye.

Warm regards,
S. Shrestha

Charity Show of Nepali Movie 'KIRTIPUR'

London, 8th September 2018

Pasa Puchah Guthi UK, London held its charity show of the historical Nepali movie 'Kirtipur - The Legend of Kirtilakshmy' at SOAS university of London. General Secretary Mr Sandeep Shrestha opened the show with a warm welcome and the program details. PPGUK London President Mr Sanyukta Shrestha introduced the newly elected executive members and its advisors with a promise to bring the best throughout their tenure.

The show attended by a nearly full house of 75 guests, started with UK premiere of a bonus short film "Haa Sa: Madugu Sa:", an award-winning work of art which highlighted the need for teaching mother language to the kids. The short film directed by Sunita Rajbhandari Junu was well received by the audience.

Through a video message, director of the movie 'Kirtipur', Mr Pradeep Khadgi expressed his gratitude towards all who attended the show in London and hoped the word of mouth would help gain momentum for Nepal release of the movie as well

.The movie 'Kirtipur' was then screened to the audience who left the theatre with immense feeling of pride for the bravery and perseverance of the people of Kirtipur documented from some 250 years ago. The general consensus of the audience was that the film presented an untold history through creative medium and a well researched method, as well as it made them well aware of the Nepali history.

The event also promoted the endangered 'Ranjana' script of Nepal through a charity sale of a large volume of orders for handcrafted bookmarks with people's names. It was prepared by PPGUK culture secretary Mrs Pranisha Shakya, with due support by the executive team of Mrs Rukmani Manandhar, Mrs Sabita Manandhar, Mr Anil Maharjan, and Mr Sumeet Bajracharya.

General Secretary Sandeep Shrestha informed that the next event of PPGUK London is a combined Newah feast with all other branches at Basingstoke on 28th September, for which the tickets can be collected by contacting any of the executives or emailing info@ppguk.org.

Jung Bahadur's Nepal

a polyphonic historic fiction novel

The story of Jung Bahadur. Of quicksilver temperament and eyes that glow blue like the cold light of phosphorous.

The story of Nepal. Of determined queens, weak kings, loyal dogs, cock-egos and rollicking good times.

The story of the immortals: gods with three eyes, copulating statues and virgin goddesses.

I called them using the language of sights and sounds: they remained in hiding.

I called them using the language of symbols: they whispered back a mesmerized story of desire and devotion.

The story of you and me.

RATHER THAN HOW TRUE OR AUTHORISED THE STORY OF SHANKHADHAR IS, IT IS MORE IMPORTANT WHETHER WE COULD REVIVE THE SHANKHADHAR WITHIN US WHEN OTHERS ARE IN NEED. OUR CULTURAL HERITAGE, WHICH IS BASED ON ART AND MUSIC, PROBABLY AIMS AT TEACHING US THE SAME THING.
